Dear friend! The saying لا اله الا الله means, that there is nothing really existing but Allah. لا اله is an usual euphemistic periphrase for الله (422 19 etc) of the Koranic كل ما عليه فان فيقي وجه سبحك ذي الجلال والاكرام. It is an ordinary conception in Sufistic and other mysticism, that all exists in God and that He is the only reality.

We will stay here till the end of this month. I am reading always Shikha books printed in India. The literary workings shall begin in the next month.
I hope, that the things sent to you to Harford did not fail you. I do not dispose of other copies. I hope to read after you the proof-sheets having passed your revision. Thousand thanks for the pain taken by you in the interest of my paper. When, think you, the paper can appear. Faithfully Goldziher
